In the last years, according to European regulations and recommendations, in each European country the Qualifications System has been different, not always having enjoyed the same result in the country, because the systems developed have not been the same during the System inception. One of the most important job profiles in the wood working activity is the profile of (a skilled worker in wood working) or CARPENTER (a craftsman in wood, who holds the art of making things from wood), but the profiles are different depending of the country.
